

Adult Bible Study News Fairfield Grace UMC 2017-2018

On June 11, we will celebrate the completion of the “Believe” campaign. As it comes to a close, we are looking ahead to next year’s programming. We are asking for your input. Please use this survey to respond with your level of interest. Please also take this opportunity to submit any suggestions and/or ideas to improve the program. Our goal is to grow our faith while enriching and widening our understanding of the scriptures and of Jesus Christ.

For next year, rather than choose one book to study, we will be having a series of shorter programs throughout the year, each lasting several weeks. For example, the first program will take place September 17 – October 22. For this 6 week session, we will be discussing “More to Your Story: Discover Your Place in God’s Plan” by Max Lucado. Examples of other programs in the series are: “Anxious for Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World”, also by Max Lucado and “Five Means of Grace: Experience God’s Love the Wesleyan Way” by Elaine A. Heath.

Additionally, we are considering organizing a few Friday nights during the year to show a spiritually uplifting film.
